

6 March 2013 by TA editorial

The European Financial Reporting Advisory Group (EFRAG) has appointed Spanish auditor Carlos Soria Sendra public policy member to its supervisory board.

Soria Sendra was put up as a candidate by the Instituto de Censores Jurados de Cuentas de España (ICJCE), one of the current three accounting bodies in Spain.

Soria Sendra is former vice president of the European Commission's Standards Advice Review Group and previously a partner of big four firms Ernst Young and Deloitte.

Related links

European Financial Reporting Advisory Group

Instituto de Censores Jurados de Cuentas de España